G Em C D
It's sad to hear about two future brides , their love denied, they thought it best to leave the past behind
G Em C D
And why should they continue through these times when people try to stop and damn the natural love of dykes
G Em C D
So they took some pills, and they made a will with the hope that the future would see
G Em C D
Weren't no Romeo , just two Juliets , they were starcrossed as lovers could be
G Em C D
It was a lovers' sui- cide , a lovers' sui- cide , we all have to pay the cost when lovers choose to die
G Em C D
We pay for every life , we have to pay for every life!

G Em C D
Then there's the tale of a boy trained to fight , all his life, they told him he was worth a sacri- fice
G Em C D
But he woke ten times a night consumed in fire when he recognized reasons he killed were only lies
G Em C D
So in a cold , grey a- partment located somewhere in occupied Tik- rit
G Em C D
He tied the noose and he set himself loose, in search of a land for the free
G Em C D
It was a soldier's sui- cide , a soldier's sui- cide , we all have to bear the costs when soldiers have to fight
G Em C D
We pay for every life , we have to pay for every life!

G Em
Now where does it stop? Nobody knows? The body count just grows and grows
C D
It won't be long before the skies are painted black from plagues and flies
G Em
One thing is for sure, as sure as you're born, once the roses are dead, we're stuck with the thorns
C D
If we look down on love and kill for a lie it won't be too long before everyone dies!
G Em
We must make a change or we'll kill ourselves! Take your vote to the booth, get your gun off the shelf
C D
And cre- ate a change, it's ours to decide, we've only one choice:
G
Revolution or Sui- cide!
